

Attorney Comments: None

District Administrator Letters, Announcements or Requests: Les will be heading out of town for about a week in June. The Senior Room/ Preschool moving along nicely. We did have concern from one of the seniors regarding the change. Les spoke with her and explained they will still have space as before. We will be adding a playground area as well as a door to the bathroom connecting from the preschool room. Jordyn Nuno will be in an office in the lobby area of the Crafts room. Babe Ruth registration is growing tremendously. The first game was this week. We have been approved for a State Babe Ruth Tournament. West Coast Baseball wants to hold a major league scouting camp here in town in August. Homelessness issue is still a major problem – Les would still like to install an iron fence around the facility.

Board Member Announcements or Requests: Director Davis asked about an update regarding a Board Member Retreat? Les will continue to look into this. Director Jorgensen and Director Heimiller both congratulated staff for all of the hard work and how quickly things are turning around. Director Orrin asked about the SCOPE video – we are still working on this.

Items for Future Agendas: 2nd Reading of 18/19 preliminary budget, Energy Proposal
